CERTIFICATE OF ADOPTION OF PROPOSED HOME RULE CHARTER

The undersigned members of the City of Castle Pines Home Rule Charter Commission, under the authorization of Article XX of the Colorado Constitution and the Municipal Home Rule Act of 1971, do hereby certify that the following is the proposed Home Rule Charter as finally approved and adopted by the members of the Charter Commission on the 30th day of January 2019. The Charter Commission members would like to sincerely thank the citizens of Castle Pines for supporting the Commission through the election process and entrusting us with the privilege of drafting our community Charter. We believe that this Charter lays a sustainable foundation for the future of our community and allows our elected officials the flexibility necessary to govern over time, while providing recourse for the citizenry to act if the actions of the City Council are outside the support of the community. For this reason, we whole heartily endorse this Charter and respectfully submit it to the voters at the special election to be held on May 14, 2019.

PREFATORY SYNOPSIS

On November 6, 2018, the citizens of Castle Pines, Colorado voted to create a thirteen-member Home Rule Charter Commission to draft a Home Rule Charter for the City. The vision of the Charter Commission was to create a foundation for the Castle Pines municipal government to be responsive, efficient and accountable to the citizens. The Castle Pines Home Rule Charter Commission drafted a proposed Charter and we are proud to submit it to the citizens for approval.

In drafting this Charter, the Charter Commissioners researched data compiled from the Colorado Municipal League on charters from across the State of Colorado, considered best practices in municipal government, invited the opinions and views of citizens, and utilized the advice and expertise of legal and municipal professionals.

We believe this Charter will allow Castle Pines to flourish and reach its full potential while addressing local issues through its elected municipal government. The Charter assures the rights and power of the citizens for self-government under Article XX of the Colorado Constitution and the Home Rule Act of 1971, as amended.

Commissioners drafted the Charter based on the following principals:

- Governance processes should be open, accountable and responsive to the citizens.
- Elected officials should have the ability to develop processes that allow them to make decisions and act quickly and responsibly.
- Checks and balances are necessary to protect the citizens' right to be heard, including providing citizens with mechanisms to overturn City Council decisions and recall their elected representatives.
- City staff should work in a system that encourages efficiency, effectiveness and professionalism, while being subject to the oversight and control of the City's elected leaders.
- A Charter should support Castle Pines citizens' vision for the future and provide the City the flexibility to grow, evolve and respond to future circumstances.

Key provisions of the proposed Charter:

- Recognize the Council-Manager form of government, with flexibility in organizational structure to allow Castle Pines to adjust to new demands and changing circumstances as the City grows and prospers;
- Require voter approval to implement or increase any City-collected tax, consistent with the Taxpayer's Bill of Rights ("TABOR"), regardless of whether TABOR may be repealed or amended at some future date by Colorado's voters;
- Implement effective checks and balances by providing broad powers of recall, initiative and referendum;
- Ensure responsible use of public funds and provide for the conduct of the City's business through a comprehensive budgeting and procurement process;
- Establish a structure for the efficient and orderly conduct of the City government while also providing for and encouraging citizen participation in the affairs of the City.

The Commission believes this Charter fosters a sound and lasting government for the people of Castle Pines.
